

Louisiana DECA's Fall Competitive Excellence Conference

October 26-28, 2025

The Wesley Center in Woodworth, LA

Overview

Students will receive training in leadership, networking, professional development, and take part in a competitive event. Teachers will have an Adobe workshop on Monday as well as get an update on this year's DECA programs. Advisors should bring officers from your chapter, other chapter leaders, and potential CDC competitors.

Conference Fees

The conference fees apply to DECA members, advisors, and chaperones and include conference materials, conference workshops, registration fees, attendee insurance, lodging, all meals (Sunday: dinner; Monday: breakfast, lunch, and dinner; Tuesday: breakfast) and conference t-shirt.

Single:
$400 per person

Double:
$350 per person

Triple/Quad:
$300 per person

Agenda

There will be a Business Meeting held at the conference to amend our Constitution and Bylaws, so all student attendees will be voting delegates. More details will be sent and more information will be requested as it gets closer to the conference.

Meals

Delicious meals accentuate the Wesley Center's southern hospitality. For lunch and dinner, attendees are offered a full salad bar, substantial entrée, two vegetables, one starch, and a dessert. Breakfast menus include a variety of items like fresh fruit, yogurt, bacon, sausage, biscuits, eggs, pancakes, grits, and cereal. All meals are served buffet style.
